PROJECT INTRODUCTION

The project 2017-1-DE02-KA202-004138 Development of digital module-based self-oriented teaching and learning arrangements for disadvantaged target groups – ModuSOL. The project is approved by the National Erasmus Agency in Germany under the Erasmus+ 2014-2020 programme of the European Union.

It is under the key action: Cooperation for innovation and exchange of best practices.

Its main goal is the development of innovation through integration and the creation of digital learning contents in different digital formats, achieving this way the qualification in these transversal digital competences both for trainers and trainees.

PARTNERS

The Strategic Partnership in charge of implementing the ModuSOL project is formed of five partners from 4 different countries:

(Germany), Project coordinator;

RegioVision
(Germany);

Dundee and Angus College (Scotland);

INSTITUT INPRO, a.s.

FOURTH TRANSNATIONAL MEETING

The 4th transnational project meeting took place in Prague, the Czech Republic, and was hosted by the Czech partner INSTITUT INPRO. The meeting happened on 2nd and 3rd April 2019.

During the event, the consortium discussed, among other things, the national learning activities, upcoming dissemination conferences, progress in E-Book creation and the dissemination activities of each partner.

The partnership also addressed the current issue of Brexit and its possible effects on the project implementation.

NATIONAL LEARNING ACTIVITIES

Part of the ModuSOL project is an organisation of national learning activities during which the project's trainees (teachers and lecturers) forward their gained knowledge to their own students. During these events, teachers use new digital tools, applications and platforms like Kahoot!, Slack, KineMaster and many others which they became acquainted on two transnational learning activities.

Some of the project partners already realize such events and share their experience and results with the consortium. In Berlin, for instance, including video creation and editing turned out to be a huge improvement for communication between students-immigrants and their lecturer.

E-BOOK

One of the main results of the ModuSOL project is a free-of-charge E-Book which is being prepared by partners throughout the two-year cooperation.

The E-Book summarizes the initial analysis of a current situation in each partner country, didactic-methodological concept and curriculum to support the developing of the trainers' competences, best practices, case studies, learning scenarios for trainees and instruction manual for trainers. Moreover, the E-Book will include reports from transnational and national learning activities and evaluation of the project implementation.

The E-Book will be finalized during the summer 2019 and will be presented on the dissemination conferences.

UPCOMING EVENTS

NATIONAL DISSEMINATION CONFERENCES

During the meeting, partners discussed the nature and requirements for upcoming dissemination conferences. These events will take place in each partner country to introduce the project results to public representatives, decision makers and experts in educational field.
